Advocate Changes In Financial Responsibility For All Schools

Speaker Before Palatine Woman's Club Discloses State Antiquated System.

The failure of the State of Illinois to follow the footsteps of the other states in the union in the handling of school matters was severely criticized by Mrs. Lunde, educational chairman of the Illinois League of Women Voters, speaking Tuesday afternoon before the Palatine Woman's club.

Mrs. George Herrmann, American Home and Education Dept. Chairman, presented the speaker of the day, Mrs. Laura Hughes Lunde, a woman tremendously well informed and intensely interested in the educational needs for the State of Illinois.

"Education is one of the most important services that the government gives to its citizens. Education is a matter of national necessity to them and it is the duty of every citizen to see that education is kept up to date. Education must grow, develop and change from generation to generation. The children of today must have an education to fit them to be intelligent voters—which means that you must change your educational standards constantly in order to keep up with changing conditions."

There are three sets of standards in Illinois governing teachers' qualifications. One is the standard of training beyond high school before one can teach. The standard of Cook county is set by the Cook County Superintendent of Schools. In Chicago an Examining Board determines the standards for that locality and the standard set is the highest within the State—e. g. 3 years' training beyond high school. These standards are being broken down by the issuance of temporary certificates—which is a dangerous practice.

State government in Illinois is responsible for the entire State and we are supposed to make the legislature do what we want, therefore, we should insist upon well trained teachers.

In the financing of the school system, the State legislature has passed up its responsibility by placing the providing of funds in the hands of the local school districts. Illinois has the most unfair tax system in the United States. We tax property for more than twice the cost of running the government of the State. If we could take off a large portion of the property tax and put it back onto the State to provide, it would lower property tax considerably because the State does not derive its funds from property taxes.

We get State aid only for the following—the elementary schools, first to eighth grades, the State University and the normal schools. The high school is neglected altogether. That is why a tax for high schools is levied by local boards and appears on the property tax schedules.

In the proportion of educational funds paid out by the State we are fourth on the list and yet, we are the third wealthiest State in the nation.

Mrs. Lunde quoted interesting statistics which indicated the following products that could be taxed in lieu of real estate—tobacco, cosmetics, chewing gums, etc. Also a tax on stock exchange transactions. A change in laws at Springfield would divert 80 per cent of the inheritance taxes that go to Washington back to Illinois. There is a ten million dollar saving by having a centralized system of book keeping—one set of books requiring one set of overhead instead of hundreds of sets of books necessitating hundreds of sets of overhead.

In the management of education is where we are at the bottom of the list. Even the one-room school has a board of directors. There are people who cannot read or write managing school boards. One child in a school is a condition that exists. There are too many little districts. Practically every state in the union has decreased its districts—but Illinois has increased its districts and it is costing us $20,000,000 a day because of it.

If run efficiently, we could do it with only four hundred school boards instead of twelve thousand boards now in existence and we could save $20,000,000 a day. What we need badly in Illinois is to get a larger school unit for equal taxation—as in the case of other districts paying a high rate tax and wealthy districts having a low valuation—all of which is unfair.

A matter of education as a State project. Thus far there has been no State authority to make needed changes since the lack of legislation have hindered progress in that direction. What we need is a State authority to tell the legislature what to do.

A State Educational Commission advocates a State Board of Education cooperating with local boards of education, whose duty first of all will be studying this complicated school and tax situation in Illinois. A bill providing for such a State Board will be introduced at the Springfield in January. Anyone

To Urge State Aid To School Pupils of Grades and High School

The name of the Illinois State Teachers Association has been changed to the Illinois Education Association. The change of name is the result of an amendment adopted at the annual meeting of the association last December and since ratified by more than a majority of the eighteen divisions of the association. Organized in 1853, the association has to its credit 83 years of service in the interests of education in Illinois. Its membership, open to any person engaged in or interested in educational work in Illinois, now numbers 33,000.

The 83rd annual meeting of the association will be held December 28, 29, and 30, in Springfield, at the Elks' building.

An important item of business to come before the association is the adoption of a legislative program providing for increased state support of schools to the extent of $20 per pupil in average daily attendance in both elementary and high school. At the present time the State provides no support for high schools and $11 per pupil for the elementary schools. The Education Association will also be asked to approve a measure whereby the state government would guarantee at least a $50 education to all elementary school children in those districts levying for elementary school purposes an educational rate of 75c on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation, and in a similar manner would guarantee at least a $60 high school education to all high school pupils in those districts levying for high school purposes an educational rate of 75c on each hundred dollars of assessed valuation. In some districts this rate will produce less than $20 per pupil.

Other items in the legislative program to be considered are teacher qualifications, teacher tenure, pensions, minimum wage, and the education of delinquent, deaf, blind and crippled children.

Newsies Enjoy a Turkey Dinner

The Rodewald brothers, Curly and Len, played host to their 22 newsboys Wednesday evening at the Arlington Club, where following generous helpings of turkey and all that goes with it, they listened to a pep talk by Curly. They gave their boss a rousing vote of thanks and will reciprocate with better deliveries and more paper sales. The boss on his part has promised the boys another treat in January, if they make good their promise.

Woman's Club To Hold Christmas Party At Arlington Theatre

The Woman's club members and their children will meet Dec. 16, 2:30 p. m. at the Arlington Theatre for their Christmas party.

The theatre management are co-operating handsomely by giving a matinee appropriate for both adults and children.

Plans are also progressing whereby the club will join with local organizations to make Christmas cheer possible for other children of the town.

New Fast Shopper Train in Service After Monday on Northwestern

The Chicago and North Western railroad is announcing this week a new fast morning train to Chicago which will be especially welcomed by the Christmas shoppers. The train will serve Barrington, Palatine, Arlington Heights, Mt. Prospect, Des Plaines and Park Ridge. The train leaves Palatine at 8:57, Arlington Heights, 9:02 and Mt. Prospect at 9:06. It arrives in Chicago at 9:33.

Every citizen in Illinois interested in providing adequate education for the future citizens of the United States, is faced within the next few weeks with the duty of acquainting himself with reforms this book outlines and he should get behind it and demand action from our representatives.

It is the first step toward building a better administrative management of education in Illinois. The program was conceived with a group of songs by the high school Girls' Glee Club, directed by Miss Maxine Cook, accompanied by Miss Mercie Heise, offering "The Spinning Wheel," "Galway Piper," "Glow Worm," "He Met Her on the Stairs."

ANNIVERSARY OF HEALTH SERVICE HERE

Miss Jackson Has Spent Ten Years in Arlington Heights.

With the introduction this week of the annual Christmas seal sale in Arlington Heights, Miss Martha E. Jackson, is entering upon her eleventh year of service to the community. It was ten years ago Dec. 1st that Miss Jackson began her duties in Arlington. In her quiet, but efficient way this woman has won the confidence of all citizens. Shrewd in thought, purpose and action she has made herself welcome in homes that might otherwise be closed to a welfare worker. Many a mother and many a child has reason to rejoice over the day when Arlington's Christmas seal nurse made their troubles her affair and in a great many of cases found the solution.

From the nature of her work, it is largely confidential and family secrets are respected by this nurse as though they were her own. Thus the general public knows little of actual cases or the real extent of this work that Miss Jackson has carried on.

It is Miss Jackson's tenth anniversary in Arlington Heights. When it was suggested to this woman that a little celebration would be opportune, her reply was, "if Arlington Heights people desire to celebrate ten years of community nurse service here, there is no better way than they can do it than to buy the 1936 Christmas seals."

From the files of the Herald the editor has prepared this resume as to what has been accomplished in Arlington Heights during the last ten years. It is a record that the community can boast; few communities have equalled it, but few communities have such a nurse as Miss Martha Jackson.

Not so many more than ten years ago the nursing service in Arlington Heights was financed by a house to house solicitation. A representative from each church in the Village was assigned a territory to call upon and seek funds for the service. The Community has not learned to appreciate the value of this nursing service. Today this same service, broadened and deepened by years of experience is financed by the schools, the Women's Club, the Dorcas Aid of St. Peter's Lutheran church, the Ladies Aid of St. Peter Lutheran church, the Eveready club, the Parent-Teachers association, the sale of Christmas Seals in Arlington Heights, Lutheran Layman's League.

What Has Been Accomplished Strict quarantine during contagion and willing co-operation on the part of the parents of the quarantined family in Arlington Heights has brought about less contagion than any town in Cook county.

A Dental Clinic for the school children of Arlington Heights is served by the local dentists.

A dental survey of all the school children of Arlington Heights is put on by the dentists of the Community.

The annual Health Achievement is carried on in all of the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grades of all the grade schools, thus encouraging teeth care, eye examinations where necessary, drinking of milk each day and no coffee, weekly baths and shampoos, keeping the body up to normal weight and a good all-around program for healthy living.

A Baby Clinic served by a Pediatrician meets the second Tuesday of each month at 2 p. m.

An annual summer roundup by the P. T. A. of the public schools and interested committees of the parochial schools.

Three clinics for the 2 year to 5 year old children financed by Lions club, Legion Auxiliary and Woman's Club.

Graduation of about 75% of the eighth grades to high school with 100% teeth and diplomas given for the achievement.

Ten years ago each school had many children attending with a scabby skin disease, a condition repulsive to the child as well as to the teacher—now we seldom see this condition.

The nurse has a lovely "hope chest" of baby clothes available to any mother in Arlington Heights, donated by the different church women's groups.

There is a regular school schedule carried on by the Community.

HERE'S NEWS STAND BY!

Next week Arlington Heights merchants are sponsoring special Christmas sales which will be announced in a Special Edition of Paddock Publications. Local merchants have been busy selecting and buying Christmas stocks for several weeks in anticipation of the biggest Christmas in years, and all stores will be chock full of holiday merchandise and aglow with the Christmas spirit.

Do your Christmas Shopping in Arlington Heights This Year.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

Arlington Heights is faced with several serious problems that are of vital importance to the taxpayers of the village. We are upon the threshold of entering the "city" class; we are about to leave the village era behind. It takes no great breadth of imagination to see Arlington Heights growing in population to a city of 7500 within five years. Many new homes are being built and a great many more will be erected next year. This means increase in school enrollment; increase in service that our public bodies will be called upon to give to our citizens. It means added responsibilities for our village, high school, grade school and park boards.

Arlington Heights needs a civic plan commission of men and women willing to aid these bodies in planning for the future. Each of the above mentioned public bodies is sovereign in itself, but a great good could be accomplished if all would unite or recognize a properly prepared civic plan.

The Herald IS FOR SUCH A PLAN.

Park Board To Open Skating Rink Saturday

If the weather man provides sufficient cold weather, the Arlington Heights skating rink will be ready for skaters by Saturday afternoon. Paul Tæge, of the park board is giving his personal attention to the daily flooding of the tennis courts and hopes to have a solid case of ice by the end of the week. Skating will be permitted afternoons and evenings.

A charge of 5c will be made for children and 10c for adults in order to secure funds to pay the expenses which include labor and electricity. The rink will be properly policed. Family tickets worth $1.25 will be sold for a dollar, which will bring the actual cost down to 4c for children.

When the tennis courts were originally laid out, provision was made for ice skating upon them during the cold months. Each year considerable time and effort has been expended to provide skating for the young people. Such efforts promise to be more successful with the use of the present courts which are impervious to water.

The park board expects to install the toboggan and ice skating pond at the south side park later in the season.

1937 Auto Licenses Now Being Issued By State Department

Deliveries of 1937 automobile and truck licenses to mail applicants began this week from the office of Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes at Springfield.

Over-the-counter applications begin Monday. The Chicago office at 120 South Ashland boulevard, in charge of Stanley Kosinski, is in operation again this year.

"There is no change in the license fees provided by the Illinois law," said Secretary Hughes today. Vehicles of 25 horsepower or less, require a state license costing $6.50; those 35 horsepower or less, $10.50; those 50 horsepower or less, $17, and those 50 horsepower or more, $22, which is the maximum."

Krause & Kehe are giving three day service in delivery of new pleasure plates, to those who make application for licenses through their office.

Nurse which is strictly adhered to each week.

There is a new Health Center, that is, new since 10 years ago, in the Village Hall, complete with the Dental Clinic, equipment for the baby clinic, etc., held there. This was turned over to the nursing service by the Village Board of Arlington Heights when the Village hall was remodeled.

The schools all have rooms for the nurse to work in while at that school and one school boasts of a room with three beds all made up for the pupil who might need them.

There is not a community with Public Health nursing service that has more whole hearted co-operation of the dentists and physicians than our own Community.

The annual Seal sale has been put on for the last three years by mail, thus eliminating the necessity of the school children selling the seals from door to door as in former years. It is a much more dignified manner of putting on this sale and the results are more abundant.

There has always been some Christmas cheer for the Shut-ins of the Community and this has been sponsored by the Public Health Nurse.

There is always at least one Home Nursing class in the eighth grade, teaching the girls the rudiments of home care of the sick.

There is a Chest Clinic available financed by the sale of Christmas Seals and sponsored by the Chicago Tuberculosis Institute through whom the Public Health Nurse of this Community works, thus she is the Christmas Seal Nurse.

MT. PROSPECT VILLAGE BOARD

The December meeting of the Village Board was held on Tuesday night, December 1, with Trustees Haas and Willie absent. After reading of the minutes of the previous meeting and the Treasurer's report, after bills were authorized paid, the previously tabled matter of a permit requested by E. I. Wolf was opened for discussion.

Mr. Wolf, claiming that the property now occupied by his coal business is not adequate, secured permission from the North Western railroad to use a portion of the railroad right-of-way on the south side of and adjacent to the North Western Highway just east of south of Emmerson street, for a coal yard. He had previously asked the Village Board for permission to erect a building and use that site for his business.

When this matter was up at a previous meeting, it was referred to the Board of Appeals for an opinion, which opinion was rendered at Tuesday evening's meeting by the chairman of that board, the majority opinion being that a coal yard at that location would possibly detract from the general appearance of the Village. No definite action was taken by the Village Board on the matter, at this meeting.

A relative matter was brought before the Board by a petition signed by a number of citizens, requesting that the shacks located on the railroad right-of-way, just south of Emmerson street, be removed as unsightly and unbecoming. These buildings, of course, and the property they are on, are railroad property, and until just recently were occupied by railroad employees, so it was decided that the Board make a request of the North Western railroad that inasmuch as the buildings are no longer occupied, are unsightly, and a possible menace, that they be removed.

Meeting With State Water Board

On Thursday evening, December 3, a meeting will be held in connection with the sewage disposal problem, which meeting will be attended by representatives of the Illinois Sanitary Water Board, Peabody and Weller Creek Drainage Districts and their council, and the members of the Village Board. The following bills were ordered paid.

Annual Meeting of Leyden Local No. 12

Cook County Truck Gardeners and Farmer's association, Leyden Local No. 12, will hold the annual meeting at the school house located on the corner of Irving Park boulevard and Wolf road, Saturday, Dec. 5, at 8 p. m. The purpose of the meeting is the annual election of officers, reports of officers and committees and do planning for 1937. You are invited to come and voice your opinion. If you are a farmer, truck grower, or if in any way interested in the work of this group of citizens, you are invited to attend and see for yourself what this association means to your community and what it is really doing for those interested.

Speakers on interesting subjects such as Chicago Ordinance as to markets; state legislation, insurance, etc., will be present to talk on these subjects. It is going to be well worth your time to attend this meeting and the secretary of Leyden Local No. 12, has asked us to spread the invitation in this week's Register, as this paper reaches almost every home in the territory, so show your appreciation of the thoughtfulness of you by being there.

Achievement Clubs Enjoy Thanksgiving Dinner Together

It was not Thanksgiving Day but the achievement clubs of the Merrill and Strong schools, districts 20 and 22 had a poultry dinner for both schools at the Strong school. All of the children enjoyed fishing prizes out of the pond. The girls of the Strong school gathered these prizes together. There were also a variety of games, prizes and favors.

XMAS CHEER FOR KIDDIES OF ARLINGTON

Committee Will Confine Efforts to Toys, Dolls and Candy for Children.

With an adequate provision for food and clothing through the regular relief channels, the Arlington Heights Community Christmas committee will confine its efforts this year to the children and for which they are asking the cooperation of the general public. A meeting held in the village hall Monday evening to make plans for the spreading of Christmas cheer to the needy families was attended by representatives of the Lions club, Friendly class, P. T. A., Woman's club, Lutheran Dorcas society, American Legion, Ever Ready club, Evangelical Aid society, and Mother's club.

The plan is to collect dolls and toys which can be used and repair or repaint if necessary, also to buy candy, using cash donations and distribute where needed.

Any organization or individual who desires to help in any way please communicate with any of the following:

Mrs. L. F. Elliott, general chairman; Rev. Kossack, chairman toy department; Mrs. Henry Schroeder and Mrs. O. A. Koehnke, doll department; Mrs. Russell Ford, candy department; Mr. Roy Lawbaugh, transportation.

Toys will be collected this week at each school in town, or call any of the above named persons and arrangements will be made to call for your donation, or if you wish you may leave them at the office of the van-Davis building, afternoons or evenings.

One-Door Residence Nearly Fatal To Palatine Family

The hazard of homes constructed with only one exit was again demonstrated last Friday night when Chas. Ruff and family of Palatine road were forced to use a window to escape from their home which was afire.

The blaze had started in the adjoining garage, had spread to the residence and the family was only awakened when the flames, poured attracted by the flames, poured upon their bedroom window.

Flames blocked the only door exit. The garage was lost, but the house was saved by the Palatine fire department.

Walter Witt, mail carrier and Lawrence Koch, after an evening of bowling at the Palatine alleys, were on their way home when they saw the flames and reaching the scene, sounded the alarm.

Similar lack of exits is blamed for the death of two children at Bensenville a week ago.

Benefit Dance Saturday For Victims of Fire At Bensenville

A benefit dance will be held Saturday night, Dec. 12, at Hack's ballroom, Bensenville, for Mr. and Mrs. William Cord of Bensenville, tragic victims of the disastrous fire of their home, in which their two little children were burned to their horrible deaths, recently.

All efforts are being made to put this benefit over in a big way, for almost everyone knows that the Cord family is in dire need. Every bit of their personal belongings were lost in the fire.

So if you want to do a good deed, and as every good citizen should, come to the dance—it's Saturday night, Dec. 12, at Hack's Ballroom in Bensenville. If you can't attend, at least go to Hack's and buy a ticket. You will have never given to a better cause.

Wheeling School Achievement Meeting At Childeley

The Wheeling public school will have an evening achievement meeting at Childeley, Dec. 11, beginning at 7:45. The four lower grades will present a Christmas operetta. The upper grades will try to show the guests how a model meeting should be conducted. We cordially invite all, and we know you will have an enjoyable time, because we have several little surprises in store for you.

Copy Early Next Week, Please; Call 15 For Special Service

Arlington merchants who are planning Christmas announcements in the special edition coming out next week are requested to get their copy in early. Due to the heavy volume of advertising already scheduled, it will be necessary to pick up copy Friday and Saturday of this week. Those who get their copy in early, naturally will get the best service.

Conference Changes Athletic Policies

Bar Conference Competition in Athletics; Eliminate Trophies and Championships In All Sports.

ADMIT NILES CENTER TO CONFERENCE

The old time conference competition between the schools which are members of the Northwest conference has been eliminated. That was the order issued at the conference meeting held in the Arlington Heights high school Wednesday evening.

Its immediate effect means that there will be no conference tournament this year and there will be no trophies awarded at the end of the present season. Next year's basketball schedule is to be entirely revised under the "new deal" policies. A committee composed of Messrs. Bright, Antioch; Conger, Arlington Heights; Clark, Barrington; Watson, Leyden; Wesner, LaSalle Zurich has the responsibility of submitting the new schedule for that sport at the March meeting for approval. They will consult the preference of individual schools and an effort will be made to confine the schedules to natural rivals and nearby schools. "There is no sense why any school," explained Mr. Drummond, secretary of the conference Thursday morning, "should be required to travel 40 to 50 miles for a basketball game." The principals and coaches delegated to Mr. Drummond the sole responsibility of making any announcement to the press of events transpiring at the Wednesday night meeting.

The same principles that will be followed in compiling the basketball schedule will be followed in making new schedules for football and track and for which championships and trophy awards are things of the past. "The press will be allowed to publish the number of games won and lost but there will be no official championships. The action of the meeting Wednesday evening came as a surprise to the majority of the coaches, who found that the principals at a meeting a week earlier had evidently decided unanimously upon the action that was officially approved by the larger body this week.

Niles Center was admitted to the conference bringing the number of schools up to twelve. There were no dissenting votes to the latter action.

In explaining the reason for the change in policy, Mr. Drummond says in part:

The present schedule is too heavy; the principals feel that one game a week is sufficient; that the tournament between the semesters, coming at a normal examination period takes too much time and attention of the players and the school itself. That the method of competition between schools in the Northwest conference will be likened to that followed in the Big Ten of colleges.

The principals made it plain that intramural sports in the individual schools will be advanced in importance by the changes in conference athletic policy. A greater number of scholars will have the opportunity to take part in sports under the new plan. The individual prowess of players will be lessened, and scholastic attainments will not be so much overshadowed by athletic honors.

Alderman Schaefer Finds 17 Year Old Boy Lost In Stonegate

Stonagate, the mecca of petty thieves, had a victim of its own Sunday—and it was not a thief, only a 17 year old boy who had appropriated the car of his boss and upon his way to Arlington Heights, claimed to the police, that he had been unable to find his way out of the labyrinth of streets in Stonagate. The boy remained at the police station until Monday noon, when Frank Schentille, his boss and owner of the car he had driven, arrived, paid the costs incurred and promised to take the boy to the "woodshed" after he got him back to the garage.

Arlington Girl Awarded Prize for Cheese Menu

Lillian Deering, 409 W. Wing street, Arlington Heights, won a prize in the Cheese Week contest in which high school girls from every section of the nation were enrolled, entries were judged from the standpoint of ingenuity and variety of cheese dishes included in each menu, and the correct nutritive balance of the day's meals.

Arlington Auto Driver In Avoiding Accident Picks on Fire Hydrant

Paul Kindler, 205 W. Miner street, in an effort to avoid hitting a car which had obeyed a stop sign at the corner of State and Euclid, knocked over the stop sign, wrecked the fire hydrant and car. Water spouted 20 feet in the air, until the main was shut off. F

MAIL CARRIER KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Henry Hohmeyer, Ontarioville, Dies Instantly; Others Seriously Hurt.

In an auto accident at the intersection of Route 58 and Barrington road early Saturday night, Henry Hohmeyer, 66, Ontarioville mail carrier was instantly killed and three others were seriously injured. Hohmeyer received a fractured skull.

The three most seriously hurt in the collision were Charles Schumacher, 61 years old of Dundee, assistant superintendent of the Illinois Iron & Bolt Co., Carpentersville, his wife, Lillie, 46 years old, and Normalee Hartman, 5 years old. Mr. Schumacher's condition was considerably improved Monday but that of his wife and the Hartman girl still was regarded as critical.

Did Not See Approaching Car Mrs. Schumacher received severe scalp lacerations and a chest injury while her husband was cut about the face and head. The Hartman girl also was severely lacerated about the scalp and face and it first was believed that she and Mrs. Schumacher had received skull fractures.

Benjamin Prehm, 43 years old, Ontarioville, driver of one of the machines, escaped with cuts and bruises while his wife, Erna, 36 years old, a daughter of Hohmeyer, received a chest injury. Mrs. Dorothy Connell, 57 years old, an aunt of the Hartman girl, received an injured shoulder and possible internal injuries.

Mr. Schumacher, accompanied by his wife, was driving just on route 58, and Prehm, accompanied by his wife, his father-in-law, Mrs. Connell, and the Hartman girl, was traveling north on the Barrington road when the crash occurred.

Prehm told State Highway Patrolman William Gallagher that he stopped for the stop sign at the intersection of the two highways and then started across, failing to see Schumacher's car which was bearing down upon him.

Upset by Impact Schumacher's car struck Prehm's machine broadside and tipped it over, hurling its occupants onto the pavement and into a ditch at the side of the highway. Schumacher's car did not overturn.

Hohmeyer, who was in the front seat, was dead when picked up from the pavement.

State police were notified and Marsh & Conn and Wait-Ross-Allanson ambulances were sent to the accident. The injured were brought to Sherman hospital. It was feared for a time Saturday night that Mrs. Schumacher would not survive her injuries as she was in severe shock. Her condition had improved slightly Monday, however. Mr. Schumacher is a member of the village board of West Dundee.

Mr. Hohmeyer was born in Plum Grove south of Palatine Aug. 13, 1870. He had been a resident of Ontarioville for the last 35 years.

He is survived by the daughter, Mrs. Prehm and a son, William, of Ontarioville; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Tonne of Lake Zurich and Mrs. Christine Holle of Long Grove, Ill., and two brothers, William, of Chicago, and Charles J. of Mt. Prospect.

The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon in Elgin, Rev. William Jiede, pastor of the Ontarioville Lutheran church officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Fans Will Follow Cardinals to Crystal Lake Saturday Night

When Arlington's Cardinals travel to Crystal Lake this coming Saturday night to engage Coach Metcalf's quintet of hardwood artists a large following of fans is expected to turn out to boost the Cards if the number that went to Maine last Monday night is any indication. A goodly crowd of enthusiastic rooters was on hand at Maine and were amply repaid for their journey.

As usual Crystal Lake has one of the good teams in this district. If Arlington is able to take them into camp again this Saturday, it will be quite a feat, and one worthy of the best in the present crop of Cardinals.

The Tibbitts-Cameron five took two games from Schoenbeck's Insurance.

The El Rands bowled three fair games, but the Angeloff Boosters bowled worse so the El Rands took all three, taking sole possession of first place.

The Vail Tavern sharp-shooters needed three wins to stay in a first place tie with the El Rands, but they dropped the last game by nine pins after winning the first two, slipping to second place.

Due to the fact that the paper came out early last week the bowling scores didn't get into the paper. Here are a few left overs from last week. Geo. Winkelman, after being laid up all season with the gout, finally got back in Krause Market lineup. Dick Boeger made his appearance on the Union Tavern team replacing Irv. Kehe, who dropped out. Glad to have you in the league Dick. Two new high individual scores were bowled last week, Eddie Duenn getting 251 for high score of the season so far, and John Duthorn of Prudential fame (pardon the commercial) got 244 for second high.

Ed. Engelking started bowling with Union Tavern this week. Go out and get 'em Ed.

If you see any of the Vail Tavern boys this week, and they have a sort of a long face, the answer is 3 on the chin from Krause Market. Romo Becker, after a very shaky start this season, has finally worked himself up into fever heat and has been knocking the pins right and left. Blatz starting out very weak, came back to win two games from Arlington Elev. On 5 and 6 the civil war for the basement was resumed and Union came out on top 2 to 1. "O. K. Gus."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Helm drove to Eureka first of the week to take Lewis, his classmate and George Elliot to resume their classes in Eureka college, after their Thanksgiving holiday at home.

Last week Saturday, Mrs. H. C. Cleveland was the guest of Mrs. George Jelinek in the city, and in the evening she attended the opera in Chicago.

Mr. M. Saar, who had been two weeks in a Chicago hospital for surgical treatment, came home Sunday. Mrs. Saar stayed with Mr. Saar's mother, who was ill and little Eugene stayed with his grandmother, Mrs. Finkback.

Look over the various places for the disposal of foods, ready to eat—read about it.

Miss Edna Taegge, who teaches in the Mount Prospect school, spent a pleasant day at River Forest Sunday.

Miss Millie Johnson and Mrs. S. Fehlman attended the opera in the city last Saturday evening and express regret that the course in which they had entered so soon ended.

Consternation prevailed over the citizens in the vicinity of the corner on State road and Euclid, Monday, when during the night some vagrant had broken off the hydrant causing a flood to cover that locality and consequently such a scarcity of water in the homes as to hinder the housewife's laundry work—a lack of water for 24 hours.

Happy birthday to you! The brothers, sisters and intimate friends of Mrs. Walter Fiene of West Campbell street met in her home Friday, November 27, to celebrate and make happy her birthday. Mrs. Louise Hahnfeldt, who was unable to be present, sent a beautiful bouquet of pompons, a real sheaf of sunshine. It was indeed a happy family party and we join with all in wishing Mrs. Fiene many happy returns and may these guests and brothers and sisters be with her to celebrate even if she reaches the Century mark.

Carol, the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peter, skipped happily over her ninth birthday November 25, in time to be thankful the 26th. It was an immediate family party and we can bring dear Carol no better wish than this, may she grow to be the same kind of helpful, cheerful woman as mother and grandmother.

Tuesday, December 1, Shirley Jerousek bounded up to her sixth milestone on life's journey, so Shirley had a party and how? When her mother called on us the number of the little six year old daughter had reached twenty and she said had no idea how many more Shirley would invite, by the time she got home. You may be sure the overworked mother would put no limit to the little six year old's joy in her party.

Come notices of current events. The Neighborhood club gave the housewarming party to the Stadlers in their new seemingly far off home, Tuesday this week, and the warm esteem of each loyal neighbor brought warmth and cheer of good neighbors to the occupants of their new home.

Wednesday, December 2, the M. E. Mother's club met in the home of Mrs. Reinshagen, and we know their meetings are always enjoyable, have no report of their activities, at this too early date.

Thursday, December 3, the M. E. district group and dinner was given in the church.

The Presbyterian Aid society will hold their regular meeting in the church hall Thursday, December 3.

The Social "500" club will meet with Mrs. Scholman Thursday, December 3.

The Ideal club met in the home of Mrs. Alb. Goelke, Thursday last week. The real social good time.

The Methodist ladies are planning to give a Pot Luck luncheon Friday night this week—pots full of good things to eat.

Monday, December 7 Mrs. Comer Rice will give a recital in the M. E. church.

December 10, a Missionary meeting, home and foreign, will be given in the home of Mrs. Wm. Harth on East Euclid street.

The old time Mother's club will hold their next meeting Thursday, December 10 in the home of Mrs. Arthur Windheim on South Evergreen avenue. This Mother's club holds not only a record of many years existence, but better yet, a long list of kindly deeds.

The Sunshine club meet Thursday, December 3 with Mrs. Paul Huffman. This group describe them young or old, as you please, they are all alive. November 28, they went to the Palace theater and witnessed the "Follies of 1936." After theater they enjoyed a dinner, a choice menu they hadn't cooked or prepared themselves.

Tuesday, December 8, the Friendly class are to give a Hostess Luncheon at 1 o'clock afternoon. Their guest speaker will be "Martha" from the WLS studio. This will be held in Presbyterian hall. The hostesses are on tip toe in preparations and we are sure it will be a most friendly affair they will give their guests.

In the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon, December 6, at four o'clock will be given a vesper and candle lighting service. A Chicago choir assisted by the home choir will give vocal and instrumental music. Look forward to a rare treat.

The Sunrise service and breakfast given by the Presbyterian Sunday school Thanksgiving morning under the inimitable leadership of the superintendent, assisted by an equally capable corps of teachers, parents, pupils, was a most happy and pleasing event. With thankful hearts we hear unstinted praise for the program, the prayers of thanks and the breakfast. The soloist, Mr. Brazelton, we hear from those who have heard Chicago's best for years, give unstinted praise for a wonderful singer, he was accompanied by our own Mrs. McWhorter. Over one hundred seventy partook of the wholesome breakfast. We are proud to congratulate Mr. Rau and all who assisted on the splendid success of this happy event.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wasser spent Thanksgiving week-end visiting in Kentucky and Tennessee. Wasser's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrah, Searsdale, now have three sons. The youngest, John Edward, was born Tuesday, Nov. 24, at the Oak Park hospital.

Thanksgiving joys were dimmed for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Utterback when they were called to Sigourney, Iowa last week. Mr. Utterback's mother passed away Tuesday after a long illness.

Mrs. Chas. Klock, now of Chicago, but a former resident on South Mitchell, called on friends Monday. She has been suffering considerably from a broken arm—a bone in the upper arm having been broken and not yet healed.

Roger Grandt has been home from school for a few days because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Costain of Huron, South Dakota, spent the week of Thanksgiving with their son, Donald Costain and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tody spent Thanksgiving and the following week-end at Delavan with relatives.

The children, grandchildren and relatives from Park Ridge, dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hasemann and surprised them on Nov. 26, Thanksgiving. The occasion for this surprise was their fortieth wedding anniversary. The children presented Mr. and Mrs. Hasemann with a beautiful occasional chair. At midnight a wholesome and delicious lunch was served. There was a large, beautifully decorated cake over which everyone smacked his lips. Needless to say, an enjoyable evening was had by all, and everyone hoped to be present at another happy celebration at Mr. and Mrs. Hasemann's 50th anniversary.

Mrs. A. G. Hasemann spent the week-end in Cincinnati, where she visited her mother, Mrs. E. Stange, and her brother, Mr. Wm. Stange and family. Mrs. Hasemann was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. George Miller of Park Ridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Riley and family, W. Wing street, spent the week-end at Paris, Ill.

The week-end was a jolly one for the Woolmer's for their two daughters and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Madison and Mr. and Mrs. Kenney of Peoria, were with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay C. Crofoot and Mr. and Mrs. Hilah Burke returned to their home in Addison, Michigan after a Thanksgiving visit to the home of O. G. Barrett.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Grandt entertained their card club.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Perrin, Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Pepper and children of Chicago; Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Sigwalt and the Frambergs. A happy day for Mrs. Perrin and her sisters. Miss Crystal Bruning of Joliet visited her friend, Mrs. Donald Costain, Monday and Tuesday. Miss Bruning is soon to leave on a tour of South America.

Mrs. E. H. White, of Regina, Sask., Canada, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. S. Olson.

Mrs. H. S. Olson was installed as Martha in the Albany Park chapter Thursday evening.

ARLINGTON COUNTRY CLUB RE-OPENS

Experienced Manager Has Lease on Dundee Road Golf Plant.

Arlington Country Club, the deluxe golf club on Dundee Rd. which for many years had a large membership and the scene of many big tournaments and social events, is about to again come into its own. This club which was originally organized as the Olympic, a private institution, has been leased to Pat Cusack, who is no stranger to Chicago golf fans. Pat has made and is doing a lot of rejuvenating about the club house, which will be opened for parties and dances during the winter.

Chief of these changes is the installation of a coal stoker and changes in the heating plant which will make the interior of that large club house, as cozy as any balmy summer day.

Mr. Cusack has been going about the work in a systematic manner and is now ready to book the parties and dances. The new manager has grown up in the golf club business. Starting as a caddy, he became an assistant pro, pro, club manager and now lessee. Questioned as to next summer's events, he stated that he is considering a daily fee course, but will make no definite decision upon the matter until near the opening of the season.

It Happened—In Chicago

Capt. George O'Connor of the Central station Wednesday ordered detectives to launch a drive against various small gambling devices which have become popular in the loop with the approaching holiday season.

Slot machines, punch boards with poultry prizes, machines with "cranes" for lifting out prizes and others along similar lines will be under the ban.

Capt. O'Connor ordered visits made to cigar stores, barber shops and other loop places instructing his men to arrest the owners and confiscate the machines where found.—Chicago American.

Funeral of Mrs. Fred Wickersheim Was Held Sunday Afternoon

Mrs. Wilhelmine Wickersheim, nee Krueger, was born Nov. 11, 1865 at Warbende, Mecklenburg, New Strelitz, and was baptized and confirmed in the Christian faith in the same village. She came to America at the age of 19 years. Feb. 4, 1886 she was united in wedlock with Mr. Fred Wickersheim in the Evangelical church at Long Grove of which she was a member for 32 years. The couple lived at Long Grove till May 1918, when they moved to Palatine, whereupon she became a member of St. Paul's Ev. church there and also of the St. Paul's Ladies' society. Nine children were born to the happily married couple. Of these nine daughters preceded the mother in death, one in infancy and Lizzie, Mrs. H. P. Schroeder, Feb. 19, 1930.

The following remain to mourn the loss of their mother: Clara, Mrs. Ed. Lauffenburger of Long Grove; William of Lake Zurich; Elsie, Mrs. Ed. Ost, of Barrington; Edward of Long Grove; Alma, Mrs. H. C. Bockelman of Palatine; Miss Anna Wickersheim of Palatine and Harry of Chicago, and 14 grandchildren. She also leaves one sister and two brothers, Mrs. Johanna Kleinschmidt of Palatine and Herman Krueger of California and August of Montana, as well as a number of other relatives and a host of friends.

Mrs. Wickersheim was ill since 1929, especially the last year of her life. She was very low at times. The last weeks she was very frail and sorely afflicted, a patient sufferer. She passed away quietly and peacefully Thursday, Nov. 26, at 2 p. m., at her late home, 43 E. Wood street, at the age of 71 years and 15 days. In Mrs. Wickersheim, a kind and loving wife and mother, passed on who will be greatly missed in her home and also by friends and neighbors.

The funeral took place Nov. 29. Services were conducted at her late home and at St. Paul's Evangelical church by the Rev. J. C. Voelke; the interment was made at Hillside cemetery.

Held Funeral For Mrs. Wm. Bierman

Funeral services for Mrs. Wm. Bierman, Palatine, who died suddenly on Nov. 26, were held at the chapel in Palatine, were held at the Salem Evangelical church of Barrington on Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. Donald Landwer officiating, assisted by the Rev. W. A. Hauffer. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

Martha Thies Bierman was born March 18, 1878 at Plum Grove, and had been a life-long resident of this vicinity. Following her marriage to Wm. Bierman on July 13, 1904, the couple made their home on a farm south of Palatine, moving to the village 9 years ago. She was a life-long attendant of the Salem Evangelical church of Palatine, and a member of that organization since her youth.

Two brothers, five sisters, and one child preceded her in death. Besides her husband she is survived by a brother, August Thies of Highland, Kan.; and two sisters, Mrs. Sophia Landwer of Edison Park and Mrs. Mary Mummert of Palatine.

Mrs. Ida M. Flynn Dies After Stroke In Office of Optician

Mrs. Ida M. Flynn, partner in the firm of Flynn-Gable, Arlington Heights florists and hatchery passed away Wednesday afternoon at St. Francis hospital, Evanston, four hours after she had sustained a stroke in the office of an Arlington Heights oculist.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon in the Lauterbach & Oehler funeral home, Rev. Kossack officiating. Interment was in Ridge-wood cemetery.

The deceased had been in excellent health until last January when she sustained her first stroke, which necessitated many weeks and months under the care of a physician. She was apparently making a slow but phenomenal recovery, when the second attack came, which proved fatal.

She leaves her mother, Mrs. Crowley, a sister, Mrs. Clara Gable, a son, Thomas F. Flynn and a daughter, Mrs. L. J. Keller, of Des Moines, Iowa.

Ida M. Crowley, daughter of Benjamin and Anna Crowley was born April 28, 1884 in Fort Worth, Texas, in which state the deceased spent her earlier years.

She was united in marriage to Thomas F. Flynn June 30, 1909, making her home in Des Moines until the death of her husband in January, 1918. She came to Chicago and in 1914 to Arlington Heights, where she was joined by her parents and later by her sister, Mrs. Gable. She acted as a reconstruction aid at Fort Sheridan 18 months.

About 1919 the Flynn-Gable hatchery was established and a few years later the gardens and flower shop. Mrs. Flynn was a good business woman and possessed a natural taste in floral work. She had many warm personal, as well as business friends.

Northwestern Guitar Club To Give Hawaiian Concert

On Friday, Dec. 4, the Northwestern Guitar club will present their first Hawaiian concert at the Methodist church auditorium in Arlington Heights, starting promptly at 8:00 p. m. This is the first concert the club has presented here, although a number of Heights people have heard the group at previous times. The program will include popular Hawaiian and old favorite tunes and will provide an unusual variety of evening. About twenty-five people will take part.

Among the features of the program will be an electric "singing" guitar duet. Elmer Herick has already earned a reputation in Arlington Heights with his performance on this instrument and he will play with Anthony Sebek of Park Ridge in an Hawaiian combination that is very effective and entertaining. Another feature that should attract interest and applause will be the Honolulu quartet. You won't want to miss the unusually beautiful sections that are playing. The Three Farmers are just about the world's worst bachelors when it comes to playing the guitars, but their harmony is good even if things don't seem to match up right and you can't help laughing at them. You'll enjoy their part of the performance. There will be other diet and trio numbers as well as a sprinkling of solo selections ranging from the most popular cowboy tunes to old favorites like "Turkey in the Straw," popular selection like "Let's Sing Again," Hawaiian tunes and even a Christmas song or two.

Tickets are now on sale by local members at a low price to clear expenses (see Jimmy Jirak or Norman Boese), or you may secure them at the door. A good crowd is expected so you'd better get there early. This program will be unique in Arlington Heights. Don't miss it.

Anita Louise Likes Love Making By Old Mill Wheel

It's a shame that the old mill wheel went out of style. A mill stream was a fine location for love making. Anita Louise thinks so, anyway. She's sorry there are no mills and mill wheels and mill streams around Hollywood. She would rather be wooed beside a mill stream than anywhere.

It was "Anthony Adverse," the Warner Bros. production which comes to the Arlington Theatre on Sunday and Monday, Dec. 6 and 7, that convinced Miss Louise about the romantic value of old mills—

"Anthony Adverse" and Louis Hayward, the young English actor, in the picture, Miss Louise plays "Maria" and Hayward plays "Denis." They meet and make love "by the old mill stream."

There were no mills available in Southern California. You can find almost anything else, jungles, monasteries, convents, alps, sugar cane fields, cotton patches, the Gobi desert and the South Seas, for instance. But Warner Bros. couldn't find a mill or a mill wheel or a mill race anywhere and had to build them.

Anton Grot, the art director, made some sketches and the set designers went to work on the ranch across the river from the studio. Within a week, as nice a mill as one would want stood under the oaks in a ravine. The mill wheel turned with a rhythmic creaking; water dripped from the moss covered wheel into the race and murmured its way on down the hill. Under the trees the grass was heavy and there were wild flowers growing by the rocks.

When the mill was ready, Director Mervyn LeRoy took the company out to it. The company had been spending the week on a sound stage, taking pictures of Claude Rains in a bath tub and pictures of Miss Louise in bed, but the change was nice.

Hayward took his position under the tree in the sunshine. He wore high boots, tight fawn-colored pants and the sort of coat that French officers wore in the 18th century.

"I can't sit down in these pants," he said. "How am I going to make love in them?"

Director LeRoy told him not to worry about his pants. "Fredric March managed all right, and his were tighter than yours," LeRoy pointed out.

The mill wheel began turning. To did the camera. Hayward kept looking up the hill toward the wooden bridge that crossed the race. A dog cart drove up and stopped. Miss Louise got out as gracefully as she could which was very graceful considering that she had on a blue dress with enough material in it to make ten modern dresses. The skirt was as full as a skirt can be. "Denis," she called, and ran across the bridge.

Hayward ran toward her and took her in his arms.

Christmas Buying Starts at Gieseke's Store at Arlington

Gieseke's store, Arlington Heights, has assumed a Christmas air. Counters of special goods for Christmas are ready for holiday buyers—and it is none too early to do that buying.

A great many suggestions for Christmas gifts are contained in a special supplement of this paper which is being delivered today to the homes in Arlington Heights.

With the general improved business conditions in Chicago and the crowded loop stores, the Christmas shopper will find few real bargains down on State street and if there ever was a year when the thrifty shopper should do his Christmas shopping at home that year is right here now.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Vanderbeek are parents of a daughter, born Tuesday, Nov. 24, at the Sherman hospital, Elgin.

Is The Church Worth While?

What worth is your Church to the community? What has the Church actually accomplished that can merit the praise of men today? What would happen to society if we would no longer support the Church and the agencies of social welfare it has made possible? Would you want to live in a churchless society?

The answers to the above questions will be quite clearly demonstrated in the play, "The Lost Church," which will be given by the members of the Senior League of St. John's Evangelical church on Friday, December 4, at 8:15 p. m., in the church parlors.

The play cast consists of the following: Man of the World—Cecil Meyer. His wife—Mildred Becker. Their son—Wallace Oselefin. Their little daughter—Marion Becker.

A Sunday school teacher—Virginia Deering. A Neighbor—Harry Helfers. A poor woman—Lorraine Lump. Spirit of the Church—Louis Hahnfeldt.

Spirit of Ignorance—Embert Schearinghausen. Spirit of Social Injustice—Mary Angelloff.

Spirit of Sin—Fredrick Lauterburg. Spirit of Spiritual Darkness—Ruth Duenn.

Preceding the play, Miss Ruth Warnecke of Oak Park and student at Elmhurst College, will give a few readings relative to Christmas-tide. Tickets at 25c are now on sale and may be had from any of the members of the Senior League. Your support will be graciously appreciated.

Dramatic Art Students Appear In Recital Dec. 7

With the Fidelis club of the Methodist church as sponsors, Comer Rice presents her dramatic art students in recital at the Methodist church auditorium, Monday evening, December 7th, at 8 o'clock.

There will be no admission charge for the recital. Refreshments will be served following the program for a small sum to help defray the expenses of the recital and to aid the Fidelis treasury. The program will be:

"One of the Least of These"—Marilyn Wood.
"The Little Gray Cottage," and "Another Empty Stocking"—Frances Schaeberger.

"Nurse's Day Out," impersonating Cornelia Skinner—Marjorie Nelson.
"The House With Nobody In It," and "The Cross-Eyed Rag Doll"—Dorothy Cooper.

"Little Boy Blue"—Margaret Bowlin.
"The Downfall of Santa Claus"—Jean Daniels.

"It Could Happen Here," scene, the telephone exchange—Margaret Allison.
"The Freshman Gibbers"—Shirley Laurin.

Monologue in three scenes, "Not This Year"—Lillian Strack and Evelyn Jarvis.
The last number is a one act play in which each student is cast in an entirely different role than that previously played: Margaret Bowlin plays a small boy, Shirley Laurin, a poor woman; Margaret Allison, a bragging man of wealth; Jean Daniels and Marjorie Nelson appear in double roles that are most colorful; and Marilyn Wood plays the part of a most unusual character, symbolical in nature.

V. F. W. and Auxiliary Installation of Officers

On the evening of Nov. 20, the officers elect of V. F. W., Arlington Post No. 981, and their auxiliary were installed in an impressive ceremony at Lauterburg & Oehler's chapel.

The installation commenced at 9:15 p. m. and was completed at 10:30 p. m., after which the friends and relatives enjoyed themselves at cards and followed with a luncheon.

The installing officer for the veterans was past commander, William J. Hefferen and the auxiliary, past president, Marie Bolte. The new commander of the V. F. W. post gave an impressive and sincere speech and all that heard him were of the profound opinion that he was sincere in his remarks.

President elect of the auxiliary spoke in glowing terms of the purpose of the organization and its welfare to disabled comrades of the World war.

All ex-service men that are eligible to join the V. F. W. and their wives should enlist their services with either the post or its auxiliary and where they will find the true spirit of comradeship so well emphasized by Commander, Homer Bowlin.

Below are a list of the newly installed officers of the post and auxiliary:

Miss Emilie Gruber Bride of A. R. Eller

Miss Emilie Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gruber, was united in marriage to Mr. Albert R. Eller, of Chicago, Saturday, November 28th at five o'clock evening in Trinity Lutheran church in Chicago, by the Reverend Carl Reinbold, in the church where the bride received confirmation. The pastor read the solemn vows and impressively pronounced them man and wife.

The bride was prettily attired in a beautiful white velvet gown, long veil enveloped her graceful form, her arm bouquet of white roses and gardenias. All who knew Emilie can realize how prettily she wore these becoming ornaments. The bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. Reinbold, son of the pastor. The bride escorted to the altar by her father, where the bridegroom awaited her. The best man was Mr. Louis Schmidt of Chicago. Mr. Rudolph Gruber was also an attendant.

The bridesmaids were Miss Helene Gruber and Miss Stephanie Hans. The bridesmaids were also charming in their gowns of transparent blue velvet with slippers to match in color. They carried bouquets of pink roses. After the ceremony were hearty congratulations and may be partly tear to glisten on the blossoms, tears of hope and sadness.

The wedding party retired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Gruber, 1718 N. Long avenue, where the bride had made her home. A bountiful dinner of choice viands was served generously to about one hundred guests.

Only a small number of Emilie's many friends were represented among the guests as the limited space in this home would not accommodate more. There were many beautiful and useful gifts to adorn the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Eller at 3640 N. Janssen avenue, Chicago, where they extend a hearty welcome to their many friends and their numerous friends join in sending them waves of good wishes to flow over and surround them until they reach their Golden wedding anniversary.

The guests from Arlington Heights attending the wedding were Mrs. G. Plumly, Mrs. O. Schoenbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peters.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wilke Celebrate Anniversary

Saturday evening, Nov. 28, was the scene of a happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. Wilke of Arlington Heights, when they were pleasantly surprised by their children, grandchildren and friends at a cheery dinner at the Presbyterian dining room at 6:30 p. m.

Upon arrival at the church, flowers were presented to both by Edward Wilke, Jr., Entertainment was given at the home on 1212 N. Dunton street. Cards and airplane buxco were played. A midnight lunch of coffee and cake was served. A good time was had by all. All departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wilke many more happy anniversaries.

Michellau-Clesen Nuptials Performed at St. Peter's Catholic Church

Mary Ann Michellau of Niles Center, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Michellau, became the bride on November 28th of Arthur Joseph Clesen of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clesen of Wheeling. They were united in marriage in a beautiful ceremony performed by the Rev. Charles F. Eckert in St. Peter's Catholic Church in Niles Center.

The bride wore white satin with a long tulle veil and carried a modernistic bouquet of white carnations. She was attended by her cousin, Mary Michellau, maid of honor, and Mrs. Elsie Amman of Chicago, matron of honor. Serving the groom were Peter Clesen of Chicago, best man and Edwin Grandt of Wheeling, usher. The reception at the groom's home in the evening was attended by many relatives and friends.

The bride and groom are spending their honeymoon at Turkey Run, Indiana. On their return they will reside in Wheeling.

Tells Arlington Audience How Prison Inmates Are Paroled

Will a man released on parole become an offender against society again? Is society better protected against criminals by a parole system or a unit sentence system? These and other fascinating questions were discussed before the Methodist Men's Club Tuesday night by Mr. Sam Daykin of Joliet. Introduced by Mr. LeRoy Long, an old school and college mate, Mr. Daykin told how the Illinois prison administration is now pioneering in the work of parole prediction. He presented a sketch, necessarily brief, of the statistical work involved and the factors to be considered if paroles are to be granted on an intelligent basis. A group of over fifty persons was present, many of whom were not members of the club but were attracted by the timeliness and interesting nature of the subject under discussion.

The speaker pointed out that work in sociological subjects could not approach the accuracy of the physics laboratory, but that given a sufficiently broad collection of data a sociologist could make reasonably accurate statements of fact and predictions. The first experimental work in parole prediction was done in 1928 by Prof. Burgess of the University of Chicago. He investigated several thousand cases of parole from three state institutions and classified his results in groups according to the types of crimes committed. He found the percentages of repeaters among parolees. Mr. Dakin and others are engaged in carrying this and similar work forward. Many factors are now being studied, as family interest, work record, and neighborhood conditions, all of which have a definite bearing on the possibility of violation. Altogether several hundred facts are now considered in determining what chance a given prisoner has of becoming a recidivist, or repeater. These factors are correlated and the results given to the parole board.

Inasmuch as about ninety-four per cent of all prisoners in Illinois serve less than life terms and have eventually to be released, the problem seems to be under what system they shall be released. The parole system, based on statistics and the law of probabilities and placing the released person under supervision would seem preferable to a flat release system without further control. Moreover, Mr. Daykin pointed out, the parole system is actually resulting in the serving of more time by prisoners than the old flat term system did. This statement came as a shock to those who were under the impression that parole was turning out hundreds of persons annually who were insufficiently punished and who hastened to take up a life of crime again. Furthermore the new system is actually resulting in a decrease in violations of parole as compared with earlier administration. Of the forty six states using a parole system il-

Junior League Topics

Of course, the main topic of conversation of members of the Junior League these days, is the winter frolic which they are sponsoring at Mohawk Country club on Saturday evening, December 12. This group of ambitious young women are happy to present the music of Bill Lytton and his band widely known throughout the east, as well as abroad and heralded by debutantes and students alike as one of the finest college bands in the country today. Bids can be purchased at the country club or from any member of the Junior League or by calling 721-J.

Eight members of the League attended the opera Mefistofele at the Civic Opera House last Monday evening. The group included Bernice Perrin, Elinor Smith, Gwendolyn Topping, Madonna Annen, La Veta Baxter, Dorothy Blimehl, Elinor Montgomery and Gertrude Moehling.

Illinois is the only one having a scientific prediction practice, although indications are that it will spread. The present storm over recidivist criminals, not at all the object of the speaker's attention, may have some effect on the Illinois system, but can hardly result in the adoption of a better one, either for protection of the public or for redemption of the criminal. The hope for improvement lies in the continuation of scientific study and its extension into the rest of the nation. Then with an enormous basis of facts to work on, parole prediction can become even more accurate than it now is. The problem is therefore one for slow and considered progress rather than hysterical guesswork and attack.

The Men's Club was very fortunate to receive the services of such a speaker at such an opportune time. The audience was appreciative and asked numerous pertinent questions. Future programs of the club will undoubtedly benefit in attendance from the high quality of this one.

ROSELLE LOSES THRILLER IN CHURCH LEAGUE

Dierking Brothers Star in Defeat by Norwood Park.

By TOMMY KOUZMANOFF

The Roselle Lutheran Church basketballers, led by the two Dierking brothers, Howard and Glanz, battled vainly last Sunday at Des Plaines, for their first Lutheran church league victory, against Norwood Park, losing out in the final seconds 31-30, after leading all the way.

With but three minutes to play and holding a 30-27 lead, Roselle lost its two scorers, Glanz and Howard, both going out on personal fouls, leaving the team without a capable ball handler, giving Norwood Park the break it needed. They put in two baskets in rapid fire to turn the tide in its favor to get its first league victory 31-30, to put Roselle on the bottom of the heap.

C. A. C. Girls & Alumni Open Basketball Season Saturday Night

For the first time the people of Arlington will be offered a chance to see their boys and girls play basketball on the same card. In the past they have played on separate nights, but this year they are co-operating for their and your mutual benefit.

In the Alumni line-up you will see the past greats and near greats in Arlington High basketball. Some of them brought athletic fame to Arlington by showing their superiority over your neighboring towns, all of them demonstrated the Arlington First spirit. Our line-up is just about set, will you be there Saturday, December 5, to check it with your mental choice?

Those followers of girls' basketball who proved themselves so loyal this past year will have a chance to renew their friendship and also get acquainted with some of the new girls to the Arlington C. A. C. The girls won 14 and lost 6 basketball games last year and are naturally seeking to better, if possible, a good record.

The opponents are two fast Chicago teams, the Arcadia vs. the Arlington C. A. C. girls, and the Harrison Trust Bankers vs. the Arlington Heights alumni. Both of these teams rank high in their respective circles, so should extend our Teams, if we would save our face before our home crowd.

Saturday night is the time to try something different, to find relaxation and amusement, why not try basketball? The first game is at 8 o'clock. Don't forget, Saturday, December 5, at 8 o'clock.

Also remember January 16, 1937.

HELP! HELP!

Last week the sports department received and published a letter signed "A basketball fan," suggesting a "way out" for the Northwest Conference.

His suggestion would be to group the schools of the conference in three sections of four each, on the basis of enrollment and not on the basis of playing football. Our fan went on further with his plan, the details of which, you no doubt read.

The suggestion is a very logical one, and was unquestionably being given full consideration at the conference meeting, which was being held last Wednesday night, Dec. 2, at Arlington, just as this edition was going to press. We will have a complete story of the meeting and its outcome in next week's papers.

Jobbie Eiserman, Libertyville, star triple-threat halfback on the Lake Forest College eleven for the last three years, was voted the most valuable player award by his teammates for his unusually fine work this year. Jobbie was also named on the second team of the Chicago Daily News' Little 19 All-Stars selections.

Wittenberg, Palatine alumnus, pulled a "Dick Merriwell" in the Thanksgiving eve Palatine High School-Alumnae basketball game, by sinking a basket in the last few seconds of play, enabling his fellow grads to whip the school boys 15-13.

The Palatine lights trounced Northbrook's first team 14-5 in the opener.

Back in the Spring of 1933, Vern Stelman, Bensenville Trogas slugging shortstop, accompanied by the team manager, George Buman, was on his way to a minor league try-out with Keokuk, Iowa, then a member of the old Three-Eye League. On their way they stopped at Peoria to watch that club play Evansville, both of which teams were also in the Three-Eye loop.

Apparently, the pros looked pretty good, because Vern was back in Bensenville the next day. . . .

Fellows that have played with Stelman, as he is better known, or against him, and fans that have seen him make tough chances look easy time and again, know that he did the wrong thing in not trying to catch on in professional baseball. . . .

Last season, at the age of twenty-nine, Stelman was again peer of the Tri-County League short stops.

The Bensenville Alumnae teams have written in to "The Chatter Box," saying that they would like to book some basketball games with Arlington, Palatine, et al. . . . Your sports editor will gladly act as booking agent. . . .

E. Mensching, Itasca, continued to set a dizzy scoring pace in the Lutheran Church League by crashing through with fourteen more points last Sunday against Glenview. . . . His nearest scoring competitor, Meyer, from Glenview, kept right on his trail with fifteen points. . . .

This department has received inquiries as to the Arlington Ping-Pong Club. . . . If it is going to organize for the coming winter season. . . . Mr. Long was president of last year's organization. . . .

Twenty-five years ago last spring, George Schaeffer, Sr., was a promising young catcher on one of the Three-Eye League teams. . . .

It is probably the first time in the history of the Northwest Conference that it has an alumnus on a championship Big Ten football team. . . . Vange Burnett of Libertyville, is the young man that did the trick. . . . He has the press' heartiest congratulations. . . . In Voigts, Burnett had a tough competitor for the right tackle job. . . . Voigts has been named on many of the All-Conference teams. . . .

A big crowd attended the Bensenville-Edgewood Baseball Team dance at Hack's Ballroom in Bensenville last Saturday night. . . . The fans rallied to their team's call and the boys thanked them for it. . . .

Umpire—Havileck.

CARDS WIN THREE GAMES IN ONE WEEK

Heavies Defeat Maine, Crystal Lake and Niles Center.

With their victory over Maine this past Monday night Arlington's Cardinals completed all but one of their pre-conference games. All have been victories for the Cards. Bensenville was trounced 44-16; then Crystal Lake was taken into camp last Wednesday night 32-25; on Saturday night Niles Center fell before the Arlington onslaught 29-22, and then the climax for the Cards was the big Maine game which Arlington won 18-15. This last game was hard fought, but a slippery floor handicapped both teams and inability to get around prevented a higher score.

Only the game at Crystal Lake this coming Saturday night remains as the final warmup before the all important 1936-37 Northwest Conference season begins. The Cards hope to complete this early season schedule with a clean slate. However a tough Crystal Lake team stands between them and a clear record. Arlington won the first Crystal Lake game by only seven points when played on the local floor. Playing at Crystal Lake should just about even the odds.

The scoring in the first Crystal Lake game was pretty evenly distributed. The Cards could not get started the first quarter and failed to connect with a field goal. At the beginning of the second quarter Schneberger and Weisgerber entered the game and the scoring began. Both boys popped in a couple of baskets. Then Annen came through. They left the floor leading 18-10. In the second half Pingel went back in and connected twice and Kopplin once to keep up the good work. With the scoring so evenly divided it was impossible to stop them and while Crystal Lake outscored Arlington 15-14 the second half, the final was 32-25 in favor of Arlington. The entire squad of twelve got into the game for the Cardinals.

On Saturday night when Arlington tied into the Niles Center team they met the best squad they have faced so far this year. In Ellsworth, Carroll, Eby, Geerd, Kluesing and Mutti, Coach Isaacson has a sextet the equal of most in this vicinity. They will improve as the season progresses. Arlington's return game with them January 9, should prove to be a honey.

John Annen and Capt. "Chuck" Kopplin were "hot" and scored frequently enough to keep the Cards out in front. The others were putting up a nice defensive game and feeding these two.

Had Arlington been hitting her close in shots with any degree of regularity in the Maine game, the margin of victory would have been greater than the 18-15 score indicates. Arlington was outplaying Maine, but only Schneberger could connect with any regularity. Arlington's defense was keeping Maine well bottled up and at times bewildering them. The slippery floor caused a lot of traveling and both teams were constantly sliding on the back of their pants. This inability to keep on their feet seemed to slow up Arlington more than Maine. Nevertheless Arlington came off with the game and are content to retain the basketball victory for the year over their old rivals from Maine.

Arlington Lightweights Have Lost Three Pre-Conference Games

The Green Tornadoes lost to Maine's lightweights Monday night in a fast, hardfought game by a score of 29-18. Karich and Deming, center and forward respectively, played in the form which made them effective last year. Between them they scored seven points. Maine moved into a 9-1 lead at the end of five minutes and threatened to make a show of the inexperienced Arlington team. Mayerck, Baxter, and Becker led a rally that closed the gap to a two point margin. A couple of quick drives netted two baskets and Maine was ahead 16-10 at half time. A hard, driving game during the second half could not quite equal the Maine scoring.

Arlington's lightweights have lost three pre-conference games and will engage in one more before opening officially at Gurnee on Dec. 11. A large squad of potential players has made it necessary for Coach Hayes to substitute freely. Play has not been quite as smooth as it might have been with five regulars getting in during most of the quarters. On the other hand there are not five regulars. Fans will probably see eight or ten players of about equal caliber in action in most games. With only six practice sessions since the end of football season, none of the players have found themselves fully at home on the hardwood. There are no veterans from last year. Prospects for a good percentage in the win column during conference play are bright, though, because of scoring ability of many members of the squad. Smoothness and teamwork will develop with experience.

PALATINE LUTH. BEATS RIVER GR.

Beyer Stars For Victors.

By TOMMY KOUZMANOFF

Palatine beat River Grove, last year's champions, 30-22, last Sunday afternoon in a Northwest Suburban Lutheran church league game at the Lutheran gym in Des Plaines.

Beyer starred for Palatine with four baskets and a free throw, while Wittenberg, Helms and Hinrichs, each came through with six, seven, and eight points, respectively.

Kahle stood out for the losers, getting four baskets. Burrill, former Leyden star, had two baskets and two free tosses.

TECHNICOLOR...

That is the type of picture which will be presented to the American public in large doses during the coming year. . . . The large studios have announced that for the 1936-37 movie season they will present seventeen technicolor extravaganzas. . . . And believe you me, the American movie goer will have seventeen good shows to see. . . . It's a fact that producers will not turn out a poor technicolor picture. . . . That is they won't do it until after this process has been proven successful. . . . The producers are too anxious to see this type of picture go over in a big way. . . . And from the reception the last two technicolor pictures, "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" and "Ramona," have received from the general public, I imagine they would like to see more pictures of that type. . . . The scenes in both these pictures were beautiful to behold. . . . One can hardly believe that any country could boast of such unusual scenery. . . . And yet, the producers of pictures have just started to turn out pictures of this kind. . . . Imagine what it will be like after several years of experience. . . . in the last two pictures the scientific men in the studios who have been studying this process have eliminated "that something" which was a strain on the eyes when the first pictures of this type were presented. . . . I join with the millions of other theatre fans in wishing the producers of this type of entertainment continued success. . . . And the best way for the movie going public to show their appreciation is by attending technicolor pictures and registering their approval at the box office. . . .

HAPPILY MARRIED...

Well, I see where John Barrymore of the Royal family, and Elaine Barrie finally took the fatal step which made them man and wife. . . . Now the public can rest for a time. . . . There will be no more chases of Caliban and Ariel. . . . And the other members of the Royal family will get a respite from the nauseating publicity which John heaped upon them by his unusual and unpopular antics. . . .

UNDERSTUDY...

At last they have found a girl who can successfully fill Eleanor Powell's shoes. . . . Now I don't want you to think that they have found someone who can take her place on the silver screen, but the fact is Eleanor needs someone to break in her dancing shoes before she wears them. . . . A young lady by the name of Maxine Nagei has been selected. . . .

FILM FLASHES...

George Bancroft will be given the lead in "A Doctor's Diary". . . . Joan Crawford and Myrna Loy have traded parts. . . . Joan Crawford will take the part in "The Last of Mrs. Cheyney" and Myrna Loy will handle the lead in "Paradise". . . .

Frances Dee signed a long term contract with Paramount, the studio which gave her the first chance to appear in the movies. . . . She will be cast with Gary Cooper in "Souls at Sea". . . . Norma Shearer is now in the desert recuperating from her recent illness. . . .

DIRECTORS...

Walter Wanger, one of the big producers in Hollywood is going after directors in a big way. . . . He is trying to round up every available top notch director and just recently he signed Irving Cummings who makes the seventh director to be signed by this producer. . . . He will direct "Personal History" which will star Madeleine Carroll. . . . Other directors working under Wanger are Fritz Lang, John Ford, William K. Howard, Frank Borzage. . . .

STREAMLINES...

Streamlining has entered the movies and in a big way, too. . . . In the picture "Top of the Town" $50,000 worth of streamlined furniture of the future will be seen. . . . Most of this gorgeous furniture will be seen in the scene of the night club which has been given the rating of Hollywood's swellest night club. . . . The only trouble with this club is that it will be torn down just as soon as the picture is finished. . . .

QUESTION BOX...

Ruth H., Missula, Montana: Jean Paul King, was born in North Bend, Nebraska on December 1, 1904. He grew up in Tacoma, Washington. He graduated from the University of Washington. During his school years he was active in dramatics and later he went into radio where he gained nation-wide fame. A few weeks ago he was signed as "The Globe Trotter" for the Metrotone Newsreel. . . . You're welcome. . . .

WALT PICKS...

"Wives Never Know" with Charles Ruggles, Mary Boland, Adolph Menjou and directed by Elliott Nugent—This is a good picture if you like light type comedy. Charles Ruggles and Mary Boland offer plenty of comedy relief, with Adolph Menjou offering the sophisticated touch which is necessary to put the picture on a higher plane. We are picking this picture not because it will be rated as one of the best this year but because we believe that a light frivolous comedy is needed now and then to keep you on an even keel. . . .

WALT KNOCKS...

Check this week. WALT.

"Swing Time" at Des Plaines Next Sunday

A sensational solo dance in blackface by Fred Astaire, the presentation of the newest ballroom rage, the Swing Waltz, some of the most gorgeous settings ever shown on the screen, a star-spangled supporting cast and a brand new type of story for Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, plus six of the catchiest melodies of Jerome Kern's career, are among the attraction elements of the hilarious musical romance, "Swing Time". . . .

Sparkling with scores of novel features that make it one of the most entertaining musicals of recent years, "Swing Time," coming to the Des Plaines Theatre next Sunday marks the newest co-starring triumph of the famous dancing comedy stars. . . .

Buffalo Moths

Buffalo moths are not really moths at all, according to an authority—they are beetles, and their proper name is carpet beetle. Why they are called buffalo moths is not known—maybe because of their destructive habits, and the fact that the larvae are rough and furry. There are six varieties of carpet beetles, but only four of them have been proved to be serious household pests in America. These are the common carpet beetle and the furniture carpet beetle. Of the four, the first and last species so closely resemble one another that only a microscope will show the difference. The result of their activity is also about the same. . . .

Bathing in the Ganges

It may seem queer, but one of the most interesting "sights" at Benares, in India, is that of the hundreds of pilgrims who bathe in the "holy" river, Ganges, and in its waters perform their religious devotions. Half a million pilgrims arrive at this city annually some, royally, on the backs of elephants, others in fourth-class railway carriages and thousands on foot. The city seems full of gods holy men, temples and pilgrims. Almost any hour of the early morning, thousands of white-clad pilgrims and worshippers crowd the stairways which go down the river, in which they stand, rapt and droning their prayers. . . .

Latest Pictures Booked For Catlow Theatre

Wodehouse's "Piccadilly Jim," playing Catlow theatre, Barrington, Friday and Saturday, has for its theme a young cartoonist who becomes suddenly successful with a strip which pictures a family he has observed. A high note of hilarity is struck when he discovers his girl's family and the one in his cartoons are the same. Robert Montgomery, Madge Evans, Frank Morgan, Eric Blome and Robert Benchley form the imposing cast of "Piccadilly Jim."

The Sunday-Monday feature number, "Stage Struck" brings again those popular stars, Dick Powell, Joan Blondell and Frank McHugh. Patrons may chalk up in advance another clean sweep of fun, romance and song, with the Yacht Club Boys and Warren William assisting in the merry-making. Color scenic, color cartoon and late news reel are added.

A double feature program for bargain night, next Tuesday, will offer moviegoers an evening of splendid and varied entertainment. "Bengal Tiger" is a thrilling stunt picture, with the circus for a background; "Women Are Trouble," starring Stuart Erwin, is fast, light and funny, with the complications arising through a kibitzing gang of in-laws.

"Ramona"—with color, is one of the greatest stories of all times. But with the new and perfected Technicolor, "Ramona" becomes one of the greatest pictures ever made. Filmed almost entirely out-of-doors, there is a sense of limitless space; the sweeping action photography is indescribably thrilling. Rolling purple hills, giant trees, green-gold meadows, streams, dawn, sunset—all pictured in a beauty that is breath-taking. The days on which "Ramona" is scheduled will be memorable ones to lovers of the screen, and those red-letter days will be next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Great stars—Loretta Young, Don Ameche, Kent Taylor, and a supporting cast of thousands! Two years to make! Color that's a revelation! For a certainty, "Ramona" falls in the class of "must see" pictures!

Perpignan Wood
Perpignan wood is obtained from the European nettle tree and has a yellow tinge, is hard, dense and fine grained, suitable especially for turning and carving. These trees grow sixty feet tall and are found in the Mediterranean region to Persia.

Family Partnership Gets Results

HENRY L. BOCKELMAN
The Dad

WILLIAM BOCKELMAN
The Son

There are some dads who dream about the days when their sons will be their business partner; such dreams materialize in few cases. However, there are few dads, who after 25 or more years decide to enter a business so he can be a partner to his son. There are still fewer dads who are willing to sit back and let the junior member of the firm "be boss."

That is the general picture of H. L. Bockelman & Son at Palatine, which firm is holding a reopening of their modernized store this Saturday.

The dad may have the deciding say-so, but he gets as much of a kick watching his son wrestle with new ideas and plans of expansion as does the son himself in nursing along those ideas into realization.

H. L. Bockelman, the dad, was born in Germany, the son of John Bockelman, who when H. L. was a lad of eight years settled in Quen-tin Corners nearly 70 years ago. H. L. worked as a farmer until 22 years of age when he entered the Quentin Corners creamery, where he was employed over two decades. He later worked a short time in the Long Grove creamery, then in the Bowman plant in Palatine.

When nearly fifty years old, combining common sense with his natural mechanic ability, he qualified as a tinsmith, plumber and what-have-you and entered the employ of Wm. Brockway.

When he saw that his son was dissatisfied with his job in a Chicago wholesale house, he purchased the Brockway store to provide a job at home for his son, William.

William proved to be a chip off the old block and within five years thought that he knew as much as his old man. Anyway, he graduated into the front office and was taken in as a partner.

Numerology Facts Given Confidentially To Theatre Patrons

Leslie Howard was a bank clerk. He became a playwright and a great actor. Bing Crosby was studying law, but he wound up as a crooner and a film celebrity. Amelia Earhart was a school teacher, and she became a renowned aviatrix. How did it all happen? Because of the forces of Numerology, says Mario, celebrated scientist and Numerologist.

This is not fortune telling, nor does it savor of incense, of the supernatural or of any of the uncanny or weird methods often associated with personal analysis, Mario emphasizes.

"There is no more the supernatural about this than there is about the theory of relativity or the science of the third dimension," he says. "Numerology means merely the science of numbers. Everything has its numerical value—our weight, our blood content, our body temperature. The music we listen to is the best example to make clear what I mean. Music is determined by numbers—so many beats to the measure. Fast time makes us gay, excited, active. Slow time puts us to sleep, or soothes us. Martial music awakens patriotism.

"Ancient people and, indeed, tribes in savage countries, today, use the beat of the tom-tom to arouse war-like tendencies among the natives. We, ourselves, use brass bands and bugles to create patriotism and the desire for battle, for victory, for glory.

"We sing lullabies to our babies to put them to sleep. Our cafes offer us the blare of jazz music to create the spirit of revelry. All these varied reactions come from the varied tempo—the time, which is the number of vibrations in the bar of music.

"Thus, other things surrounding us, besides music, have their numerical value, but because we do not know this, we are not conscious of the effect of these numerical vibrations. We know, because we feel it, that quickened heart action reacts upon our mental status and our physical condition. There are other beats and pulses vibrating about us that have their reaction in ourselves. This is what Numerology reveals."

Mario has explained the vibrations surrounding such personalities as Barney Ross, Mae West, Clark Gable, George Arliss, Jack Benny, President Roosevelt, Mussolini, Irving Berlin, Katherine Hepburn, Grace Moore, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and hundreds of others. Why certain persons excel in one line of endeavor and fail in another; why certain types get on well together in business or in marriage while others end disastrously; how some types are led to over-ride others while other types gain their ends by persuasion—all these facts and hundreds of others are set forth in Numerology.

Patrons of the Arlington Theatre will have the opportunity of learning their own, personal numerology through the use of an application form which may be secured daily. All information and analyses will be kept strictly confidential. None will be published and no facts will be given to anyone, save the individual sending the coupon and all analyses will be returned to readers in sealed envelopes.

Write About Visit to Herald Plant

What Wheeling school children saw on their recent trip to the H. C. Paddock & Sons to see how the Cook County Herald was published is told this week in two interesting essays by John Bingham and Sylvia La Rocca of the sixth grade.

VISITING A PRINTING PRESS

The fifth and sixth grades and Mr. Breitenfeldt, of the Wheeling Public School, visited the Cook County Herald at Arlington Heights, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 19.

We saw the web machine which does the actual printing, cutting and folding of a paper.

Then there was the linotype machine and an operator sitting at it. It has a keyboard like a typewriter, and makes forms of lead print which are used for the web machine. Each child got a slug with its name on it and also a copy of last week's paper.

After we came back to Wheeling we spent the rest of our time reading the paper. We learned English, reading, spelling, health, geography and arithmetic from our reading.

We think it is good to take field trips, and hope we can take more. We would learn more than reading in books.

We were taken to the press by the Childerley bus, and we thank Mrs. Larkin for letting us use it. We also thank the Cook County Herald for giving us the opportunity to see the printing of a paper. We also thank Mrs. Larkin for the transportation.

John Bingham, 6th Grade.

SEEING A PRINTING PRESS

Thursday afternoon, Nov. 19, the fifth and sixth grade children, of the Wheeling Public School, with Mr. Breitenfeldt, visited the Cook County Herald. We saw many machines.

The first two machines that we inspected were the linotype machines. They are worked like typewriters. The men that operated the linotype machines, typed our names on slugs and gave each child one for a souvenir.

From the linotype machines, we went to the make-up bench where a man put the slugs into forms of 24x18 inches in size.

From the make-up bench, we went to inspect the web machine, which does the actual printing of a paper. We saw how it printed, cut, and folded the papers.

We saw other machines. The job press was working when we saw it. It prints letter-heads, bunco cards, and other small items. The old cylinder press used to be used to print the Cook County Herald, but now they use the big web machine.

When we got back to Wheeling, we spent the rest of the day reading different parts of the paper. We had English, spelling, history, geography, health, and arithmetic.

We thank the Cook County Herald for giving us the opportunity to see the printing of a paper. We also thank Mrs. Larkin for the transportation.

Sylvia La Rocca, 6th Grade

WHEELING NEWS

Mr. John Sicks and Mr. Rollin Johnson of U. of I. were the only Wheeling University students to come home for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Messrs. Art Miller, Hans Schmidt and Arthur Laurance motored downstate to Olney, Ill., last week to spend a few days in quail hunting. Although they said that game was not as plentiful as last year, they returned Friday morning with quite a load of quail and rabbits.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jaegermann returned from a trip to Louisiana last week. They enjoyed their trip but had abandoned their plan for deer hunting because of lacking equipment.

Mr. Wm. Krueger, Sr., and Mrs. Nora O'Neil of Park Ridge were married at Glenview on Thanksgiving day. They were attended by Miss Alice Krueger and Mr. Frank Utpatel.

Mr. Chas. Kosman and his two sisters, Minnie and Emma, suffered broken ribs and severe bruises and cuts when their car struck a car parked on Skokie road without lights on, Friday night. Their car was damaged beyond repair.

Mr. Frank C. Johnson left his duties at Medinah Junction, Wis., to be home to attend the funeral of his father-in-law and to spend Thanksgiving day with his family.

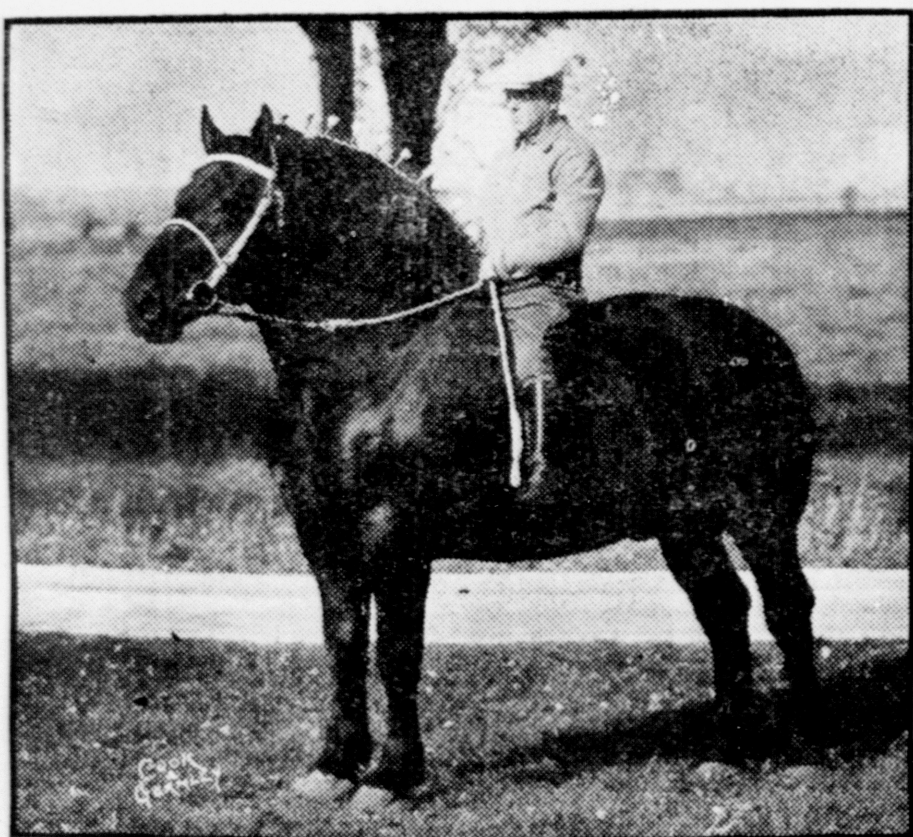

Mrs. Joe Behm has been substituting in Miss Keith's place the last two weeks.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morning worship, 10:55 o'clock. Sunday church school, 9:30 a. m. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock.

STALLION OF FRED RATHJE AGAIN SEEKS HONORS AT INTERNATIONAL SHOW

This 2300 pound Percheron stallion will be on display at the Chicago International Live Stock Exposition to be held Nov. 28 to Dec. 5. He is Cy Laet 201770, 1932 International grand champion owned by Frank C. Rathje of Palatine, Ill. Ellis McFarland, secretary of the Percheron Horse Association of America, up who operates a farm near Palatine. Mr. Rathje, who is president of the Chicago City Bank and Trust Company and a director of the Percheron Horse Association, will exhibit six of his Percherons at the International Live Stock Exposition the week of Nov. 28 to Dec. 5.

This year a total of 605 head of draft horses are entered at the International. Percherons lead all other breeds with 260 head entered by 73 exhibitors. Belgian entries total 200, Clydesdales 81, Suffolks 34 and Shires 30. This is undoubtedly the biggest draft horse show at Chicago in 20 years.

Albert Karth, 82, Wheeling Resident Passes Away

Albert Karth was born in Germany in 1854, where he attended school. Working as a farm hand he met Amelia Kovnick, who became his wife in the year of 1876. Their home was blessed with two children, while they remained in Germany.

In 1882, urged by letters sent from America by his mother and other members of the family, Mr. Karth took his wife, the children and his wife's widowed mother and crossed the ocean to America. The family settled in Chicago where Mr. Karth received a position. While living in Chicago their home was again blessed with two more daughters and one son.

In the year of 1919 they moved to Wheeling, where they have made their home ever since.

After the death of his wife, Amelia, in the year of 1929, Mr. Karth made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Fred Wolf.

After several weeks of illness, Mr. Karth passed to his heavenly reward, on Sunday, Nov. 22, 1936, his age being 82 years, 9 months and 12 days.

Mrs. Wolf's home was crowded with relatives and friends, who gathered to pay their last respects to the departed, on Wednesday, Nov. 25, 1936.

Rev. E. L. Shaw of Wheeling Presbyterian church officiated. Mrs. L. Koebelin and Miss A. Schneider "Abide With Me."

Six grandsons performed the duties of pallbearers. The interment was at Concordia cemetery.

Mr. Karth is survived by his two daughters, Mrs. Fred Wolf and Mrs. Frank Johnson; 14 grandchildren and 7 great grandchildren; two sisters and three brothers and scores of friends.

Named for Bern, Switzerland

New Bern, N. C., is named for Bern, Switzerland, the home of Christopher, Baron de Graffenried, who in 1720 emigrated to and settled near that place.

Mark Crash Affected Stamps

In the days the German mark crashed, postage stamp values had to be changed almost daily, usually over-printed with a higher amount. The peak figure for a single stamp was one so marked for 50 thousand million marks.

Wheeling Girl Married Saturday, Nov. 21

Miss Frances Rogalski, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rogalski, became the bride of Mr. Robert Sturtevant of Sterling, Ill., at the Saint Julian's church in Edison Park on Saturday, Nov. 21.

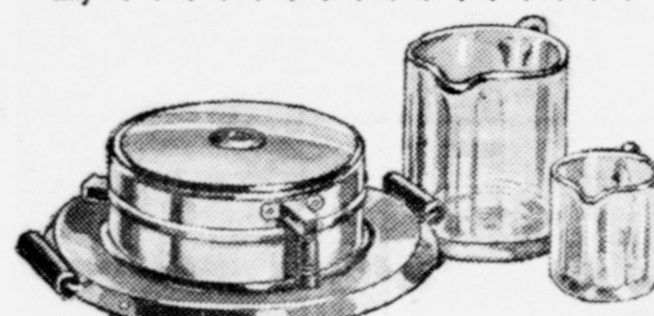

She was attended by her two sisters, Blanche and Phyllis. The best man and usher were Mr. Harold Sturtevant, a brother of the groom and Mr. Paul Dawson. The bride wore traditional white satin and tulle and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Her attendants wore gold moire dresses with jackets, wearing tiny bud roses in their hair and carried a spray of American Beauty roses.

The wedding breakfast and reception was held at the Union Hotel for immediate members of the families. Late in the afternoon the young couple left for a short honeymoon. They received the good wishes of all relatives and friends and many beautiful and useful gifts.

The newlyweds are both graduates of the Commerce School of Northwestern University at Evanston. They will make their home in Chicago.
